7.0 Use of Position:

The officials in all positions of the bank shall have to abide by their respective Code of conduct for the sake of both institutional and national integrity. It is expected that an official shall use his/her position and delegated power to do his/her jobs appropriately. Any deviations of this shall be treated as abuse of position and power. Generally such deviations are found out for following two reasons:

7.1 Private Gain:

An employee is supposed to exercise his/her power attributed to his/her position for the benefit of the institution as well as the country. But it becomes injurious and illegal if the exercise of his/her power relating to his/her position is led towards personal benefit. It is tantamount to corruption or misuse of power and position and it is quite contradictory to national integrity. Therefore, the use of position of an employee of the bank for any private gain is strictly prohibited.

7.2 Endorsement:

The endorsement of one's position is also similar to the abuse of position. Sometimes, dignitaries may not directly take any benefit by using their power and position. However, they may pave the path for benefits for other persons by making such unlawful use and authorization of position and power.

The aim of a dignitary should be serving the people or nation without bias. If any activity makes his/her own people benefited unusually and thereby frustrates the others, it shall be treated as partiality and nepotism. So, a dignitary shall not be involved in such activities.

8.0 Conflicts of Interest:

8.1 The conflict of interest is often a very strong hurdle on the way of implementation of national integrity strategy. When an employee thinks of his/her personal interest from his/her official position, a question of conflict of interest arises. The statute allows him/her to serve his/her own gain, or interest at the cost of employing institution or the state. It is a statutory as well as an ethical obligation for an employee to keep himself/herself away from the personal interest. The apparent causes or reasons behind such a conflicting situation may include the followings:

- (a) Dissatisfaction with salary and remunerations;
- (b) Unpleasant working environment;
- (c) Lack of opportunities for promotion or deprivation from promotion;

- (d) Undue influence and/or pressure from others;
- (e) Greed to or from colleagues and employer; and
- (f) Lack of job security.

8.2 Whatever the circumstances, the employees must avoid the conflict of interest as long as they hold positions in the organization. Availing any kind of undue or illegal benefit/facilities irrespective of forms, shall be treated as deviation from the required standard of services. So, to keep the employees refrained from such a trap of conflict of interest, employers might administer the employee affairs legally & ethically, and compensate them reasonably. An employee shall have to refrain from doing the following:

- (a) Performing his duties with a view to preserving/protecting his own benefits at the cost of his/her employer.
- (b) Involving in any kind of financial activities relating to his/her personal gain.
- (c) Giving any advice, consultancy, direction or suggestion to anybody or to any institution that may cause for losses to his/her employer;
- (d) Any practice/exercise that may benefit him at the cost of institution's assets either monetary or non-monetary;
- (e) Doing anything that may damage the goodwill, image and reputation of the institution;
- (f) Doing anything that may hamper the secrecy and privacy of any affairs/information of the company;
- (g) Involving or taking part in any business dealing like share holding, profit sharing, partnership of any business company or manufacturing industry or servicing centre for their personal benefit;
- (h) Getting any unusual or illegitimate benefits directly, or indirectly for himself/herself and family or family members, and relatives either explicitly, or implicitly by disguising identity;
- (i) Receiving any charitable contribution from others and/or making any charitable contribution to his/her family members and relatives if those charitable contributions are made by/under his power and position;
- (j) Receiving any gift (in cash or kind) from those who are directly benefited or assisted by his/her office or by his power and position.

The above noted issues are least in the list, but not exhausted. Any unusual act made/done by the employee(s) shall be considered within the trap of conflict of interest and be reviewed within the purview of offences.

9.0 Engagement in Other Employment:

An employee shall not:

- (a) Engage himself/herself in any commercial activity or pursue such activity either on his/her own account or as agent of others ;
- (b) Accept any outside employment, honorary or stipendiary, without prior approval/consent of the competent authority in the current employing institution; and
- (c) Undertake part time work except those, which may be requested to be accepted or undertaken by competent authority.

10. Private Trade or Employment:

10.1 Subject to the other provisions of this Code of conduct, no employees of Rajshahi Krishi Unnayan Bank shall, except with the previous permission of the competent authority, engage in any trade or undertake any employment or work, other than his/her official duties.

10.2 Any employee of Rajshahi Krishi Unnayan Bank below officer rank may undertake/run a small enterprise which absorbs only his/her family members. However, in such cases he/she must inform this to his/her employer along with the declaration of assets.

10.3 Any employee of Rajshahi Krishi Unnayan Bank may undertake honorary work in social, religious or charitable organizations and also may engage in occasional work of a literary or artistic character/nature, which may include publication of one or a few literary or artistic works, provided that his/her official duties are not hampered/suffered thereby. But the employing authority, at any time, may forbid him to undertake it or ask to abandon it if there exists valid reason/s to do so.
